

CSSOM

The Custom Style Sheet Object Model - CSSOM - is tree structure consisting of nodes representing the CSS styling for an (X)HTML or XML document.

It is used to create the styling for a document, typically by a web browser.

Each node is an object that can be accessed separately and manipulated to change the visual representation.

The CSSOM is used together with the DOM to display web pages.

From:

<http://wiki.iopsys.se/glossary/> - Inteno Glossary

Permanent link:

<http://wiki.iopsys.se/glossary/c/cssom>

Last update: 2018/08/10 18:16

