

SSL CN

The Common Name - CN - identifies a hostname associated with an SSL server certificate.

The certificate is valid for a request only if the requested hostname matches the certificate common name.

For a single-name certificate, the common name is a single hostname (example.com or www.example.com).

For a wildcard certificate, the common name is a wildcard name (*.example.com).

From:

<http://docs.intenogroup.com/glossary/> - Inteno Glossary

Permanent link:

http://docs.intenogroup.com/glossary/s/ssl_cn

Last update: 2018/08/10 18:16

