

SSL Renegotiation Indication Extension

The SSL Renegotiation Indication Extension - RNI - is an improvement on SSL and TLS aimed to prevent unauthorized connections where a service wrongly identifies an injected connection as belonging to a previously authorized client.

RNI achieves this by encrypting the TLS renegotiation so it is specific to the client.

From:

<http://docs.intenogroup.com/glossary/> - Inteno Glossary

Permanent link:

http://docs.intenogroup.com/glossary/s/ssl_rni

Last update: 2018/08/10 18:16

